

Take This Life

Words and Music by Al Hilgendorf
© 2005 EverydayPraise Publishing
CCLI #5066618

Vs. 1

There's a long road and it's narrow

And it dulls the roughened edges of my soul

And each step I take draws me closer

To the only one I truly long to know

You've called me here not for glory, Lord

But You've called me here to die

Chorus:

Take this life, take this breath

May it be a sacrifice to You

Take each word, take each deed

As I lay them before You – a sacrifice

Unto You

Vs. 2

My desire on this journey

The hope I have when all is said and done

Is that finally I'll be like You

Conformed into the image of the Son

So You've called me here not for glory, Lord

But to take the cross and die

(Repeat Chorus)